

Claire Trevor School of the Arts | Drama Bachelor of Fine Arts
Music Theatre | Program Learning Outcomes

The University of California, Irvine BFA in Music Theatre Program is dedicated to the professional training of students interested in developing their skills, knowledge, and abilities in Music Theatre.

Students graduating with a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Music Theatre will:

1. Engage in cross-discipline artistic collaboration with singer/actor, music director, composer, stage director, choreographer, and designers.
2. Demonstrate an understanding of the elements specific to the creation of music theatre:
  - a. Lyrics
  - b. Book
  - c. Music
  - d. Voice
  - e. Acting
  - f. Dance
  - g. Staging
3. Create presentations from the current canon of music theatre and developmental musical works.
4. Identify, research, and be able to articulate the role and importance of music theatre in a diverse and inclusive society.
5. Analyze and critique styles of music theatre such as:
  - a. Early period
  - b. Book Musicals
  - c. Concept Musicals
  - d. Contemporary Musicals
  - e. Pop/Rock Musicals
6. Study, develop, and demonstrate entry level professional competencies and standards of an artist through the audition, rehearsal, and performance process at the University.

Submitted by Robin Buck, Zachery Dietz, and Myrona DeLaney / 03.14.21.